Fullname: _____
 Organisation, department: _____
 E-mail address: _____
 Title of Presentation: _____
 Date: _____

I hereby declare that I give the Max Planck Institute for Psycholinguistics permission to process the audio-visual material in which I am recognizable as described below.

Purpose of use

To reproduce, edit, save, distribute, display, and perform the presentation and its recordings and presentation materials in whole or in part:

- Processing of the image material (recording, editing and archiving on MPI internal digital media) and internal livestreaming of the event
- Public livestreaming of the event
- My name, voice, likeness, biographic or other relevant information may be used by MPI in connection with my presentation and/or recording,
- To the best of my knowledge, the presentation is my own original material for which I have full authority to grant the rights set in this Consent Form, or its use and distribution relating to copyright.

In the case of consent (tick), in the case of objection (leave blank).

Legal basis for data processing

Your consent serves as the legal basis for the processing:
 for employees in conformity with § 26, para. 2 Federal Data Protection Act (Bundesdatenschutzgesetz – BDSG), for other persons in conformity with Art. 6, para. 1 lit. a GDPR.

Data erasure and duration of storage

The recordings and presentation materials will be saved on the institute's self-hosted Mediasite website, to which only members of the MPI have access via the members' restricted access area. This consent form will be saved for as long as the data is available. The data will be erased in the event of revocation of the consent.

Risks

When images are published on the internet/social media, risks include detectability by search engines, inability to delete the images entirely from the internet, third-party misuse and lack of legal protection in the event of misuse of the visual material outside the EU.
